Daring Escapes from Bangalore to Celebrate Independence Day

In the continued spirit of freedom, we are here one more time, but this time for my dear Silicon Valley people. So this time, Independence day is even more special as it is accompanied with a long relaxing weekend. What else do we corporate people need? Let me answer this question. You need to go out and feel the cool breeze of freedom right on your face and tell yourself, "I owe a tribute to the freedom fighters who laid down their lives so that I can have a comfortable life, and my children can have top notch opportunities around the globe"

For extra motivation, Read Signs You Need an Adventure Break.

However, we have already given you a list of "12 Amazing Treks around Bangalore". In the spirit of patriotism, we have yet another list of quick getaways from Bangalore to enjoy this long weekend and celebrate freedom in your own unique style. We are breaking down these getaways into 2 categories.

Kumara Parvatha

If you want lovely homestay, warm campfire, adventurous trek, and beautiful sunrise all at once, this is a place to go. Covered by evergreen forests, it is a 13.5 kms trek from the base of Kukke Subramanya. It is one of the most beautiful treks offering nature lovers with a wide variety of trees.

Visibility can be an issue due to fog in this season. But reaching at the top of the peak is just so worth it.

Milky Sea - Dudhsagar Waterfalls

Another adventure worth taking up, Dudhsagar waterfalls are situated in the border of state of Karnataka and Goa. The trek to this place is so isolated and beautiful that you would not want to come back once started. Going through tunnels and railway tracks, it will give you full feel of a movie :P

Waterfall Rappelling and Tadiandamol Trek

From nature lovers to adventure seekers, this trek offers something or the other to everyone. A memorable and exclusive experience would last a lifetime and hence this is the trek you cannot afford to miss. A wholesome experience with rising and falling terrains, mist covered valleys and dense wooded slopes, this place is worth going.

Kaurava Kunda Trek

About 75 kms from Bangalore, Kaurava Kunda is considered to be moderately difficult. As you would proceed towards the peak, thousands of lights scattered around the terrain would make the trek worth taking.

Kaurava Kunda Night Trek for full details and book a trip.

Makalidurga Trek

Ideal for busy people as this is just 60 km away from Bangalore. The trek is just 3 kms and has a railway trek passing through the hills which would give you the ancient feeling. The night sky and twinkling star would be so romantic that I would suggest to go with that special someone.
