

Introduction Paragraph

Hook/Attention Grabber: What can be said to draw in the audience? Could be: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- A Question, Quote, Fact, Anecdote
Background Information on the Topic: What information is important for the audience to know? How are the historical focus in your paper and the book connected?
Thesis Statement: State the main argument of your essay, outlining what you will be discussing and why it's significant Show how the historical focus in your paper and the book connected

Body Paragraph 1

Topic Sentence: What is the main focus of this paragraph? *Make sure the topic sentence can be reflected in the thesis
Subtopic Sentence: The specific idea that your evidence will bring up
Lead into text evidence Use a transition to shift your words into the evidence you will be stating Ex: The author vocalizes the importance of _____ by stating “ _____ ”
Evidence From a article or the assigned text
Analysis of evidence What are your thoughts on the evidence? How does it connect to the argument you made in your thesis?

Subtopic sentence 2:
Lead into Text Evidence
Evidence
Analysis of evidence
Subtopic sentence 3 (OPTIONAL):
Lead into Text Evidence
Evidence
Analysis of evidence

Body Paragraph 2

Topic Sentence: What is the main focus of this paragraph? *Make sure the topic sentence can be reflected in the thesis
Subtopic Sentence: The specific idea that your evidence will bring up
Lead into text evidence Use a transition to shift your words

into the evidence you will be stating Ex: The author vocalizes the importance of _____ by stating “_____”
Evidence From a article or the assigned text
Analysis of evidence What are your thoughts on the evidence? How does it connect to the argument you made in your thesis?
Subtopic sentence 2:
Lead into Text Evidence
Evidence
Analysis of evidence
Subtopic sentence 3 (OPTIONAL):
Lead into Text Evidence
Evidence
Analysis of evidence

Body Paragraph 3

Topic Sentence: What is the main focus of this paragraph? *Make sure the topic sentence can be reflected in the thesis
Subtopic Sentence: The specific idea that your evidence will bring up
Lead into text evidence Use a transition to shift your words into the evidence you will be stating Ex: The author vocalizes the importance of _____ by stating " _____ "
Evidence From a article or the assigned text
Analysis of evidence What are your thoughts on the evidence? How does it connect to the argument you made in your thesis?

Subtopic sentence 2:
Lead into Text Evidence
Evidence
Analysis of evidence
Subtopic sentence 3 (OPTIONAL):
Lead into Text Evidence
Evidence
Analysis of evidence

Conclusion

Restatement of Thesis: Restate the main argument of your essay, outlining what you will be discussing and why it's significant *The concluding thesis statement should be a reworded version of the original thesis
Summarize Key Points: What key points

were stated in your body paragraphs?
Final Thoughts: What is the last thing you want your audience to think about?	