

Grandma Owl came along next.
Grandma Owl did not NEED a magic wand to perform magic in the Magic Forest. She turned herself into a small turtle.
Grandma-Owl-Turtle quickly got on the ferris wheel and said, "I'm ready for a ride!"
"There is one empty seat!" cried Rowan-Owl-Ladybug and Malcolm-Owl-Pug.

Fortunately for EVERYONE, along came Owen.

Owen did not carry a wand, but he had recently invented a potion that allowed him to change size... and color.

He became a small white owl and he got on the ferris wheel.

The Ferris Wheel Adventure

Pinka just HAPPENED to be carrying a magic wand.
She changed herself into a spider: a spider that was just the same color as the cream on a cream pie!

Along came ...
Pinka!

Malcolm-Owl-Pug wished that some other characters would come along.

Malcolm Owl wished HIS wand and changed into a pug.
Pug sat in the next seat.

One fine day, Rowan Owl and Malcolm Owl visited the Magic Forest.

Rowan brought along her magic wand. (Malcolm Owl had one, too, but it is hidden behind his back.)

Rowan Owl swished her wand and said, "I want something FUN to appear!"

A ferris wheel appeared!

But there was one BIG problem:

Rowan Owl was too big to fit in any of the seats.

"I know what to do!" cried Rowan Owl. "I will use my magic wand and change myself into a small creature."

Rowan Owl swished her wand. She changed into a small creature... a VERY small creature! She was a ladybug!

"I am small enough to sit on the TOP of this seat," said Rowan-Owl-Ladybug. So she did.

Malcolm Owl flew up to check how Mommy-Owl-Velociraptor was doing. He used his wand to change her back to her original shape... even though she could have used Mommy Magic.

Grandma-Owl-Turtle was not worried at all.

Her seat had stopped at the very bottom. So she slowly crawled off the ferris wheel and waited patiently while the other characters were rescued.

Meanwhile, Rowan Owl had used her wand to return Pinka to her original shape. The ferris wheel was now empty.

Since Owen was still an owl (a small one) he flew to safety without any problems. Pinka-Spider crawled slowly down the outside edge of the ferris wheel. She could not find her wand, and that made her a bit angry. She waited Impatiently for someone to help her.

Just as the friends were getting ready to start the ferris wheel, along came Mommy Owl. She used Mommy Magic to become Mommy-Owl-Velociraptor. "Since I am on the TOP of this seat, and since I am very small, you can share with me!" cried Rowan-Owl-Ladybug.

Pinka said, "Now that everyone is back to normal, let's all go somewhere and eat some CREAM PIE!" So they did.

THE END

The ferris wheel started. "Wheel!" cried Mommy-Owl-Velociraptor. "Wheel!" cried Owen-the-now-smaller-whiter-owl. "Wheel!" cried Grandma-Owl-Turtle. "Wheel!" cried Pinka-Spider. "Wheel!" cried Malcolm-Owl-Pug. "Wheel!" cried Rowan-Owl-Ladybug. The ferris wheel went faster and faster. Then it went slower and slower. Then it stopped. And when it stopped, it would NOT go again.

Since Rowan-Owl-Ladybug could fly, she flew down and retrieved her wand. She changed Malcolm-Owl-Pug back into Malcolm Owl. Malcolm Owl flew down and retrieved HIS wand.
